Yoshida Tetsuro — Bridging Modernism and Tradition

ADDITIONAL GALLERY TALK

A new gallery talk has been added to the program for the Yoshida Tetsuro: Bridging Modernism and Tradition exhibition, which opened on Friday, 1 November. Manuscript materials will be arriving in Japan from Germany, where Yoshida Tetsuro's German-language trilogy of Das japanische Wohnhaus [The Japanese House, 1935], Japanische Architektur [Japanese Architecture, 1952], and Der japanische Garten [The Japanese Garden, 1957] was published. We are pleased to be able to hold an additional gallery talk with Ernst Wasmuth of Wasmuth & Zohlen Verlag UG, the publisher of these books, and Manfred Speidel, a noted scholar of Bruno Taut, and look forward to having many of you there.
